INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS.

Scientific men, who thoroughly understand the subject, concur with great unanimity in saying that nothing exerts such a deleterious influence against health as bad bread. The remedy is at hand in SIMPSON'S INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDER, the value of which is thus certified

RALEIGH, Aug. 24, 1866.

I have tested the Yeast Powders you manufacture and can recommend them as vastly superior to any other ever used by me. In addition to the lightness and sweetness of the bread, the powders are economical, as one-third the lard usually required will answer in the making of either loaf bread or biscuit. For pastries and cakes they are excellent.

VIRGINIA A. ORR.

The price of these powders per package is 25 cts. or 75 cts. per pound. To be had at Wm. Simpson's Confectionary Store, Fayetteville Street, Raleigh, N. C.

RALEIGH, Aug. 23, 1866.

This is to certify that I have used Mr. Simpson's Yeast Powders and find them to be superior to any I have ever used. After trying them once no housekeeper will be satisfied without them.

MRS. S. D. HARRISON.

THE SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, } Editors.
SEATON GALES. }

Saturday Evening, Nov. 10, 1866.

NEXT TO THE SPIRIT of cotton-planting, in nothing is the enterprise of the South more strikingly exhibited than in the increase of factories of all kinds. The greater number of these are devoted to the manufacture of cotton. They are not, however, confined to this, but factories of woolen fabrics, iron-ware, farming implements, earthen ware, furniture, hats, shoes, &c., are being added. The manufacture of leather, shoes and boots, soap, candles, farming utensils, edge-tools, paper, ready-made clothing, &c., should be largely increased, and might be so to great profit.

There is a special necessity for the establishment of factories, to give profitable employment to indigent females, young and old, of which the South contains unhappily a large number, rendered poor and helpless by the war. Equally strong is the necessity for establishing factories or vocations in which our unfortunate braves who have been mained, as well as the orphan children of those men who fell during the war, could find employment.

At present, the scarcity of monied capital is a desideratum which cannot be fully supplied, except to a limited extent by enterprising emigrants from the North and from Europe, who, in spite of the slanderous imputations upon the Southern people, and the reckless misrepresentations of the want of safety to strangers among us, will seek investment here. In no country in the world, except perhaps in Great Britain, is there greater personal security, or a stronger guarantee for the profitable and safe investment of money, than in the South. In some few localities, perhaps, where idle, vicious and strange persons have been drawn together by the war or by the exigencies of want and quest for employment, there may be felt some insecurity, but it is probable, that no portion of the Union is more exempt from high crime, than the Southern States. In this State, while our criminal dockets exhibit a great decline in the moral tone of our people since 1860, yet, when we consider the terrible ordeal through which we have passed, the shock given to society by the sudden emancipation of millions of half-civilized beings in point of intelligence, and the displacement of civil-law by military rule, to which all classes were utter strangers, the orderly and quiet deportment of our people, (many reduced suddenly from affluence to poverty, and all made poorer than heretofore,) and the status of society at the present time, exhibit a moral phenomenon, the like of which history furnishes no example. How can it be accounted for, except to concede to Southern society, before the war, a higher moral tone, a deeper reverence for law and order, a greater veneration for Christianity and its institutions, and a milder, more humane, more improvable and better managed system of human slavery, than ever existed before among any people?

The lack of capital now felt will be removed in a few years, by the enterprise and recuperative energy which our people are now exhibiting. Our fields well-tilled, our minerals exhumed, our manufactories, as far as we can go in this enterprise, put in motion, will furnish capital in abundance for the full developement of all the resources of the State. Formerly all our capital nearly was invested in negroes and land. Slave labor and lands were increased, not to afford capital to really enrich the State and to be invested in permanent values, but to be laid out in more negroes and land. Now our lands will seek division and partition, and, consequently, increased and more skilful tillage, and the products of the soil and of labor, will go to enhance the permanent wealth and comfort of our people.

Factories and new avocations for our population will spring up in all directions, and as these sources of employment increase, our people will be stimulated to greater enterprise, until we shall become, emphatically, a working people.

Georgia, as before the war, so now, is taking the lead in manufacturing enterprise. North Carolina, which claimed to be second to her, must now excel her, or at least come up with her, neck to neck. Twenty-five or thirty new factories are going up in that State. We are told that the demand for machinery at the South is working the Northern shops and artizans beyond time. So numerous and pressing are the orders, they must be sent in three, six, and twelve months before they can be filled.—If this be so, in our own present almost expatriated and unsettled condition in the South, what might this demand be, if the North would hasten to remove the impediments to Southern enterprise, confidence and harmony, and, by a liberal and wise policy, effect a speedy political and business restoration? The adoption of President Johnson's policy, and the enunciation of a general amnesty for all past political offences, would hasten at once a millenium day of enterprise, energy and real progress, and would so solder the bonds of Union and concord between our people, that they never could be broken!

THE STEAMSHIP MELITA.—We regret to learn that the Steamer Melita, from Liverpool, which was advertised to sail from Norfolk for Europe direct, about the middle of the present month, was compelled to put back to Queenstown, on the 2d inst., in a leaky condition.

The Norfolk Day Book says that the Agents in that city, Messrs. W. D. Reynolds & Bro., have engaged the Peruvian, a first class ocean steamer, belonging to the same line, now in Philadelphia, to fulfil the engagements of the Melita.

We regret to record these successive drawbacks to the commendable attempts to establish direct trade between the South and Europe.

IT IS estimated that the United States Senate will, as the consequence of the recent elections, stand as follows, irrespective of the Southern States: Republicans 44, Democrats 8.

"The Profits of Loyalty."

Under this caption the Chicago Evening Journal, a violent Radical sheet, exults in the progress and enrichment of the North and West, as results of the late war. It says that they "were doing well before the war; they did still better during it, and best of all since its close." Commenting upon these boasts, the New York World says:

"We do not know whether the Journal utters this as a felicitation at the good fortune resulting, in a pecuniary point of view, from the war just closed, or as an argument in favor of the new Radical civil war now threatened. But it puts these good things under the heading "The Profits of Loyalty," and, considering the Radical standard of "loyalty," we wonder that it did not mention the profits Butler derived from his "loyalty" at New Orleans and in Virginia; what Dow achieved in the way of pianos, plate, and children's clothing at Pensacola; how much Banks gained by his cotton-stealing raid up Red River; and generally, the gains of all the loyalists, with whom patriotism meant plunder, and loyalty "loot." The aggregate gains of the plunderers, including chaplains and camp-followers, who went upon the principle that "the South had no rights to be respected," particularly the right to any kind of portable property, and who, under a pretence of "confiscation," seized and stole everything in the South they could lay hands upon, amounts to millions. It is to be hoped and expected that when Congress presents its next plan for restoration, it will suggest some method for the restoration of this stolen property.

The Chicago Journal will have mentioned but a small part of the profits of its school of loyalty unless it recounts the millions made by Massachusetts and other Northern manufacturers, who swindled the government and imposed upon the poor soldiers by furnishing acres of rotten blankets, shoddy clothing, and pasteboard shoes. Of the three thousand millions or more that the war cost, one-third, at least, went into the pockets of Northern "loyalists," contractors, and others who made it their chief business to cheat the government by getting the highest possible price for the poorest possible goods. Not satisfied with this, hundreds of these manufacturing loyalists secured contracts, and furnished war material of all sorts sufficient to carry on the conflict for a century to come; and, since the peace, they have made the second enormous "profit" from their "loyalty" by buying back their goods at their own price. No other nation on the face of the globe would have submitted to the swindles which are now exultantly paraded as the "profits of loyalty." It is a fact that the larger proportion of the debt with which the country is now saddled was created to enrich the particularly "loyal" friends of Mr. Lincoln's administration.

But taking the Journal's general view that the East and the West have been immensely enriched by means of the war, it would be well to remember that the South has been proportionately impoverished and stripped, and that the Radicals are doing all in their power to prevent the recuperation of the South, its recovery of even its property relation to the rest of the Union. It will be well, too, if these Radicals remember in time that no possible effort of theirs can long prevent the Southern States from holding their place, which the Constitution gives them, as a part of the Union, and that the present injuries which the Radicals are inflicting upon the South by retarding her material prosperity, as well as obstructing her representative rights, will eventually be felt at the North with far more severity than they now are at the South. No part of the body, material or politic, can suffer without bringing suffering to the whole; and the "profits" of all the "loyalty" in the Radical party will fail to cover the losses which will come to the North and South alike by delaying the complete restoration of all the relations between the two sections."

The Northern Conservatives.

The Conservative press of the South, as the representatives of the popular sentiment, owe to it themselves and our people, as well as to the demands of justice, to express the heartfelt appreciation that is entertained in the South of the energy and spirit with which the Conservatives and Democrats of the North have conducted the recent canvass in that quarter.—The fact of their defeat none the less entitles them to our respect and gratitude. The noble stand which they have taken and maintained in behalf of a Union of equal States, and of peace, harmony and magnanimity, is one of the grandest moral spectacles of the age. If we of the South could have had the selection of the issues upon which they were to prosecute the campaign, we could have desired none more just or generous. Planting themselves upon the broad platform of the Constitution, they fought the Radical disunionists, as the Spaniards did the French at Saragossa, from street to street, from house to house and from room to room. Contesting every inch of ground, they battled with a bold and defiant courage, that was worthy of the great cause of civil liberty. A great party, thus constituted and animated, struggling on and rising superior to defeat, will triumph in the end. We have lost neither faith nor hopefulness in view of the late results. We are not yet prepared to believe that Truth and Right will not ultimately prevail.

"Truth, crushed to earth, will rise again;
The eternal years of God are her's!"

Air Lines.

We copied, from the Newbern Journal of Commerce, on yesterday, the statement that that city is now within twenty-seven hours of New York city, via the new Air-Line route described in the paragraph. But for a detention of three hours at Goldsboro, the trip could be made in twenty-four hours. That time will suffice for the trip from this city. For instance: Leaving Raleigh in the morning, at 8 o'clock, and reaching Portsmouth by 6 in the afternoon, you take the steamer to Annamessex, on the Eastern shore of Maryland, the point of junction with the Maryland and Delaware Railroad. Taking that Road, you are in New York by 8 o'clock on the ensuing morning. This route is now in regular systematic course of operation.

An Air-Line is in contemplation, and will doubtless be speedily consummated, between Atlanta and Charlotte, which will reduce the distance, in point of time, between this city and New Orleans, at least twelve hours.

Progress is the word. What a magnificent future would be before this country, if left to the development of its great destiny, undisturbed by the evil genius of Radical agitation! If it is not driven out, our great resources, works of internal improvement and industrial interests will share the common ruin of a disorganized and destroyed Republic.

Alleged Outrages in the Eastern Counties—Jones County.

We have heretofore noticed an alleged outrage upon Mr. Colgrove, of Jones County, taken from our Newbern cotemporaries. We therefore gladly publish the following correction from the people of Jones County. The people of the Eastern Counties, and especially the civil authorities, the magistrates, sheriffs, &c., owe it to themselves, to the character of their Counties and to the State, either to arrest the perpetrators of these diabolical acts, if they exist, by proper civil process, or, if they cannot, to communicate the facts at once to the Governor. Or if the rumors are false and unfounded, they should give the public the facts. Disorderly and wicked men, who commit outrages, must be arrested and punished, no matter who they are. The law and justice must be vindicated, not by summary or mob process, but by due process of law. Gov. Worth stands ready to do all in his power to restore order, protect the innocent and punish the guilty.

There are mean men enough in the State to encourage, if not to perpetrate, these disorders, and others are disposed to magnify them, in order to gratify their demon-like malice against the people of the State. They are malicious Radical tools, who magnify the slightest occurrences, and, rather than miss, manufacture, out of the whole cloth, the most damaging stories.

To the Editors of the Journal of Commerce:

In your last weekly issue, there is a short article headed "Another Outrage," and relates to an unfortunate occurrence near Trenton, in Jones county, a short time since. This article does the citizens of Jones great injustice; who, as a peaceable and law abiding community, will compare favorably with any other section of the country. You have, doubtless, been imposed upon by some person or persons, who have greatly exaggerated and misrepresented this outrage. In that article, charges are indirectly preferred against this community, unwarranted by the facts, and which, if allowed to go uncontradicted, are calculated, if not intended, to tarnish the character and cast a stain upon the hirherto unsullied honor of the county. We cannot believe that you would be instrumental, willingly, to have such a stain resting on our county, as you are personally acquainted with many of her citizens. The tenor of that article was certainly intended to injure the character of the county abroad; hence, the astonishment and surprise to see such a grave charge, insidiously made against the people of Jones. There is but one fact in the whole catalogue developed on the investigation of this matter; Mr. Colgrove has been consulted on the subject, and declares emphatically that, but one charge in that article is true, that is, the burning of the Gin House. He further states that he requested the editor to make the proper correction of the article. The facts elicited in this case are briefly as follows: Mr. Colgrove's Cotton Gin was burned on the night mentioned, and about 20 or 25 bales of cotton, or seed cotton sufficient to make that number of bales, as but little of it was ginned, it being a new Gin House and machinery and only in operation two or three days before it was burnt; all the other charges, such as a stockade to inclose his stock and other property; the gang of 20 men or more; removal of stock to Newbern for security; goods, furniture, &c., are all canards; no out house except the Gin House was burned or attempted to be burnt. No traces of any of the incendiaries could be made. It is known, although of rare occurrence, that houses of this description have been set on fire by the friction of the machinery, it being new and not smoothly working in the boxes, trunnells, journals, and not sufficiently lubricated. Oil and cotton in contact have often been known to produce spontaneous combustion.

That there have been outrages committed throughout the country, is apparent to every one; but we insist it is of no oftener occurrence in this locality than in others, and nearly all outrages when the parties were known, or afterwards found out, have come from Newbern to this county. It is believed that few, if any, of the "desperadoes" alluded to, are citizens of the county, and none natives. The citizens of this county, we assert, have no ill-feeling toward Mr. Colgrove, who have treated him kindly and respectfully. He has mingled with our citizens since his residence among us, and we venture to say, he has no cause to complain until the late unfortunate affair, which is deplored and regretted by all peaceable and law abiding citizens, and we condemn the conduct of those who would destroy, wantonly, the property of any person who may come to reside among us, and whose deportment since his residence among us, like Mr. Colgrove's, has been honorable and unexceptionable.

We cannot believe that any person or persons living in this neighborhood had any hand in burning the said gin-house. It has farther transpired that Mr. Colgrove employed a negro watchman, to keep watch and guard, who, on the night in question, was suddenly taken with fits, of what character we know not, and just at that particular juncture, of all others, he should be unable to see or tell what was going on, and rumor has it, that he has not been heard of since; yet we have no charge of kidnapping.

Please publish this communication if you can spare room, in justice to our county, whose character has been assailed by the article under consideration, and oblige,

THE NEW YORK World pokes fun at the Herald in the following style: "The Herald is a very influential paper. It supported the Democratic ticket last year and Slocum got only 24,388 majority in this city. It opposed Hoffman this year and our candidate gets 46,738.—Slocum's whole vote was 53,128, and Hoffman's is 80,141. The Herald is a very influential journal."

ANOTHER INFAMOUS SPEECH.—Mr. Speaker Colfax seems to be emulous of the fame of Beast Butler. In a recent speech he made the following remarks, which will damn him to everlasting infamy, however unanimously he may at present be applauded by mad fanatics for the utterance:

"I wish they had devoured the entire substistence of the South. If another war should come, I shall pray that every soldier might carry in one hand a torch and in the other a sword, and sweep the face of the country with destruction."

Railroad Convention at Mt. Vernon Springs.

MT. VERNON SPRINGS, }
Chatham Co., Nov. 1, 1866. }

The delegates appointed to a Convention, to meet this day, having assembled, on motion of H. L. Myrover, Esq., D. F. Caldwell, Esq., of Guilford, was appointed President, Wm. Murdock, of Rowan, and L. J. Haughton, of Chatham, Vice Presidents: Jno. M. Rose, of Cumberland, and A. W. Ingold, of Guilford, Secretaries.

The object of the Convention having been explained by the President, on motion of Jno. D. Williams, Esq., a committee was appointed, consisting of Wm. McL. McKay, of Cumberland, Abner Marsh, of Chatham, Col. Jos. A. Houston and A. W. Ingold, of Guilford, to prepare and bring before the Convention such business as may be thought necessary for its action. The committee, after retiring, submitted the following preamble and resolutions, viz:

Whereas, it is of the utmost importance to the State of North Carolina to foster and encourage all the works of internal improvement, already commenced or merely projected, in the State, that have for their object the development of her mineral, agricultural, commercial and manufacturing interests, whereby our citizens may be enabled to re-build their shattered fortunes and retrieve the ruins of the past few years; bringing into the markets of the world her vast stores of iron and coal, now buried in the earth and yielding nothing to the State, while a comparatively small outlay would make them worth more than all the boasted gold mines of California; giving to the agriculturist the means of transportation for his produce to market; to the merchant an opportunity to turn that produce into capital, and to the manufacturer the means of supplying our people with fabrics made in our own State, and our farmers with fertilizers for their impoverished lands; placing every section upon an equal footing, and enabling our beloved North Carolina—brave and chivalrous, though conquered, impoverished and oppressed, but dearer to us, in this the day of her trial than when the sun of her prosperity shone without a cloud to obscure its brightness—to take that place in the once proud galaxy of States which she is so justly entitled to occupy Therefore, be it

Resolved, By the delegates to this Convention, assembled from different parts of the State, and representing the interest and feelings of the people in all the counties from which we come, that the extension of the Western Railroad from Fayetteville, (now completed to Egypt, in Chatham county,) to some point on the North Carolina Road, would increase the wealth while it would advance every interest of the State, develop her resources, carry our produce to our own markets, build up our towns and stop the rapid tide of emigration from our State, give employment to our laboring poor, stimulate every branch of business, and give to our sons employment and a home in the "land we love."

Be it further Resolved, That we respectfully recommend to the Legislature,—soon to assemble,—that to enable the Western Railroad Company to complete their road by extending it to some point on the North Carolina Road, that they authorize the Public Treasurer to subscribe to the capital stock of this road the amount that the road now owes to the State, and for which the State holds a mortgage upon the road; then that the Legislature release its mortgage upon the road and authorize the President and Directors of said road to re-mortgage the same to some one or more capitalists for a sufficient amount to extend and complete it to some point on the North Carolina Road; and in doing so we submit that we are asking for nothing but a sheer act of justice to a liberal people, who have contributed freely to every other work of internal improvement in the State. This will require no additional appropriation of money, will impose no additional tax or burthen on the people, but will enable the Company to save counties, towns and individual subscribers, who have invested largely from their scanty means, from loss; leave the State in as good a condition, with the stock in the road as a mortgage upon the road, and secure, with such subscriptions as can be had, the completion of a great work of internal improvement.

Be it further resolved, That we urge upon the representatives of the Counties through which this road must pass, to use every effort to secure the passage by the Legislature of the above recited bill, or at least give this road in some way the means of completing it, if any other plan can be suggested so well calculated to effect the end in view, and at the same time so free from objections as the above.

The Convention was favored with spirited addresses from the President, Wm. McL. McKay, Thos. B. Long, Wm. Murdock, Maj. Jas. C. McRae, W. A. Caldwell, and others, and the preamble and resolutions unanimously adopted.—The best spirit pervaded the Convention, and all seemed determined to make a vigorous effort to consummate the building of the Road.

Secretaries were directed to prepare the proceedings of the Convention for the press and all the papers in the State requested to copy the same.

The Convention adjourned, subject to a call of the Chairman, at such time and place as he may appoint.

WELL SAID.—The President's organ says:

"In a republican country, to attempt to rule by a small minority of the citizens is like attempting to lift a heavy weight by seizing the short end of the lever. Maryland got on the right of the fulcrum day before yesterday, for it is impossible, under our form of government, to preserve peace and harmony when the few hold political sway over the many. If the masses of the citizens are unfit to exercise the elective franchise in any State, then the principle of self-government had better be abandoned at once, for in this age there is not virtue enough in any minority to render it fit to be trusted with power to rule the majority."

Which shows that Andy knows his party is in the majority, and that the country is now ruled by a minority.

MASSACHUSETTS emerged from the smoke and dust of the contest on Tuesday, covered with glory. She elected two negroes to the Legislature and sent Butler to Congress. The two men with black skins she keeps in her own halls of Legislature, while the man with the black heart is sent to Congress. Doubtless the negroes will toast the success of Butler in the words of the North Carolina negro, who eulogized Greeley: "Here's to Massa Butler! If de Lord hab cussed him with a white face, he hab also blest him with a mitsty black heart!"—Rich. Times.

George S. Boutwell delivered a lecture in Boston a few days since on political affairs. He strongly advocated universal suffrage, and said that it was probably the intention of Congress to establish Territorial governments in the lately rebellious States, and to declare who of the citizens shall and who shall not vote. The President, he said, ought to be punished if he is guilty of unconstitutional acts.

FROM WASHINGTON.

The Maryland Elections—Her Regeneration—Missouri and West Virginia Under Radical Rule—The South Will Not Accept the Constitutional Amendment—Maryland Decides Against It.

[Correspondence of the Richmond Examiner.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.

The Maryland election gives us hope for the future. That State is regenerated, or, rather, it is released from Radical rule. From the Radical States of the North—from the old free States—we expected nothing, and, as you say, we cannot be disappointed. As to Missouri, she is under the Radical dominion and wears its shackles. She would, if she could, throw off her chains. The time has not come in which she can choose or obtain freedom from Radical dominion. As in West Virginia, so in Missouri—the majority of citizens entitled to vote are disfranchised.

But the redemption of Maryland gives us hope for the future. Public opinion prevailed there over many obstacles. The Radicals had, by their management, obtained an advantage. They had, in fact, everything in their own way. They expected and had claimed a great victory. The mortification at their defeat is proportionate to their previous exultation at the prospect of triumph.

Now it is certain that the State of Maryland will reject the Constitutional Amendment, offered by Congress. This is fortunate, for it will convince the Radical North of the folly of their leaders in persisting in that proposition, even if it had been offered as a finality.

Until this day many of the Republican leaders had expected that the South, before February next, would accept the amendment. Maryland decides against it. What Southern State will go for it? Missouri and West Virginia may accept it, under present circumstances; the majority of their citizens being deprived of the right of suffrage.

The Maryland election kills the Congress proposition.

Some other project may be started by Congress at the coming session, but with their large majority, they will reject every reasonable proposition that may be offered. No middle ground—no compromise will be agreed to. Thus the country is separated, just as effectually as if the Southern secession had been unopposed. Many observing men are convinced that the Southern States, which are now excluded from representation, will never be brought into practical political relations with the Federal Union. It really looks so. For three years to come it is certain that the South will be excluded if not subjugated to the policy of the extreme Radicals.

EXECUTOR'S SALE OF

DESIRABLE DWELLING, NICE TOWN

LOTS, AND A TRACT OF LAND

Near Warrenton, N. C.

As executor of Dr. Hugh J. Davis, to effect a division among his legatees, I shall sell to the highest bidder, on the 15th day of November, 1866, at his late residence, in the town of Warrenton, N. C., the DWELLING HOUSE and LOT. Also a Lot in front of Dwelling, and a Lot adjoining the Court-House square; and a tract of Land about two miles distant from Warrenton.

The Dwelling is in cottage style, containing ten rooms, and has two basements. Near the centre of the town, surrounded by magnificent oaks, it is in one of the handsomest locations in Warrenton, on a lot of about four and a half acres, having an ample yard and garden well inclosed, with Stables, Kitchen, Smoke House, Dairy, Carriage House, Corn Crib, Servants' House, two good Offices in the yard, a well of excellent water, and is bounded by four streets. This square is sufficiently large, and so arranged as to be divided into two beautiful Building Lots, fronting towards the main part of the town. The Lot in front of the Dwelling is enclosed, contains over an acre, without any building, and is bounded by three streets.

The lot in rear of the Court-House fronts on the street about one hundred and ninety-two (192) feet, and contains about three-fourths of an acre. This lot has a Store, with several rooms, at the north corner, a residence in the centre, with several rooms, and an office with two rooms at the south end.

The tract of Land contains two hundred and eleven acres, in original growth partly, but mostly in second growth pine, and is situated on both sides of the main road to Clark's Bridge. Being so near Warrenton by a good road, this tract is valuable for its fire wood, having been reserved for this purpose, but would make a nice farm.

Possession of Dwelling and Lots given on first of January, 1867, and the tract of Land given up at sale.

TERMS—On the Dwelling, five hundred dollars cash, and on that and the rest of the property a credit of twelve months, from day of possession. Bonds, with satisfactory security, required, and title withheld until payment. Inquiries answered.

PETER R. DAVIS,
Ex'r Dr. H. J. Davis.

LINWOOD, AND RICH JERSEY LANDS, FOR SALE!

LOSSES of property and my sons, with a desire to close business and pay my debts, has induced me to convey, by Deed in Trust, all my property to Alfred Hargrave, of Lexington, North Carolina, which will be sold by him, and conveyances made, on Tuesday, the 11th. of December, 1866, at Linwood first, and Lexington next, from day to day until all is sold, consisting of the following property:

Linwood, Consisting of 1,649 Acres.

This celebrated tract will be divided into a number of ones, suiting large or smaller purchasers, including a valuable Flouring Mill, a comfortable roomy Cottage, Servant's Houses, Barns, Shops, with wells and springs of excellent water. The natural fertility of these land is unsurpassed even in the famed 'Jersey Settlement," in the heart of which they are located. They lie on both sides of the North Carolina Railroad, 7 miles from Lexington, and 11 from Salisbury, N. C. These lands are bounded by the Yadkin River, and run north and east, covering Swearing Creek, and north and south Pott's Creek; have been ditched, drained and under-drained at much expense; have nearly five hundred acres of woodland, in heavy, original forest growth, equally distributed on different parts of the estate, and sufficient for farming purposes, not an acre but what is well situated for cultivation, or the raising of grass. There are now on them fine mowing and grazing lots and fields, with woodland pastures. In all these particulars constituting one of the most desirable and healthy estates in the South. It is enough to say for it, that it is the best and most valuable estate in the famed "Jersey Settlement" and has been under a state of improvement for forty years. Cotton, Wheat and Corn have been the staple products, but there are now large fields in a condition to produce the best yield and quality of shipping Tobacco, drained and cleared of stumps and stones, easily to be broken and ridged into ground for tobacco hills.

Also, a tract of two hundred Acres of Woodland, in original forest growth, of Oak, Hickory and Yellow Pine, 2½ miles from Lexington, and 2½ miles from a Saw Mill on Abbott's Creek, and known as the Garner Place.

Also, 81 Acres—the TRENTHAM PLACE—constituting a part and adjoining the town of Lexington. Highly improved land.

Also, my interest in the Houses and Lots on which I live, in all nine acres, on which is a Fine Mansion House and improvements.

Also, the Celebrated Blooded Stallion, MEDLEY, drives well in harness. A match of superior blooded Carriage Horses, kind in harness. A superior Blooded Gelding, 4 years old. Two Blooded Brood Mares, one with a Colt. One Buggy Horse. Twenty first-class Mules, and two Jennies. Also a fine Blooded Filly, going on four years old.

Also, 87 head best bred North Devon Cattle, bred from the best imported Bulls and Premium Cows, of which there are about 40 Milch Cows, 3 fine Bulls, with young Bull Calves and Heifers, &c., and a fine yoke of North Devon Oxen.

Also, 88 head best bred South Down Sheep, including a superior lot of Rams, all of the best importations. A Stock of Hogs. The whole of the crop of Corn, Cotton, Oats, Hay, Fodder, Straw, Shucks, &c.

Also, 4 horse Wagons, 2 horse Wagons, Ox Wagons and Carts, and a number of iron Cart Axles. A Family Carriage, a Barouche, 2 Buggies and an Ambulance.

Also, a very large stock of the best Agricultural Implements, viz: 3 horse, 2 horse and 1 horse Plows, Harrows, iron and wooden framed Cultivators, Iron Clod-Crushers and Sectional Rollers, one Wheat Drill with Guano attachment, one superior Threshing Machine, Wheat Fans, two Reaping and one Mowing Machine, Farm Boilers, Spades, Shovels, Axes, Mattocks, Picks, Crow-Bars, Blacksmith and Wood Shop Tools, with Bellows, &c., and Carpenter's Tools.

Also, 20 shares of stock in the North Carolina Railroad Company.

Also, all the Household and Kitchen Furniture, one new Hydraulic Ram with glass air-chamber, and a large lot of Lead and proof 7 in Pipe, with every variety of property named in the Trust.

THE SENTINEL.

Saturday Evening, Nov. 10, 1866.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Situation as Teacher wanted by a young lady: Address "Teacher," Enfield, N. C.

Pulliam, Jones & Co. have on hand another lot of Collins' nice white Meal.

LADIES' MEMORIAL ASSOCIATION.—The officers of the Memorial Association, and the President's Council, are requested to meet at Mrs. L. O'B. Branch's residence, on Monday, the 12th inst., at 4 o'clock, P. M. A full attendance is requested, as business of importance will come before the Board.

THE REMAINS of the soldier brothers, Major James J. and Capt. Campbell T. Iredell, who fell respectively at Spottsylvania and Gettysburg, reached this city last evening. They were met at the Depot by a number of ex-Confederate soldiers, and citizens, and escorted to the Episcopal Church, where they will remain until to-morrow (Sunday) afternoon, 3 o'clock, when the funeral will take place.

We doubt not that our citizens, of all classes, will unite in a proper demonstration of respect to the memory of these lamented and gallant young officers. They were both universally esteemed in the community, while living, and their career in the army, and the manner of their untimely fall, were such as to reflect credit upon their native town and to entitle their memories to grateful regard.

THE EXHIBITION.—A large and respectable auditory were highly and very pleasantly entertained, last night, at the free exhibition at the Institution for the Deaf, the Dumb and Blind. The programme was an excellent one, and the performances of the Blind in music, and the exhibitions of the Mutes in the sign-language, were highly creditable to them and the Institution. Mr. Palmer, the excellent principal, under whose direction the exhibition was conducted, was entirely at home, and to him are our citizens much indebted for the interesting entertainment.

We would specially commend to the consideration of those, who desire cheap instruments for social or Church worship, the Mason and Hamlin Cabinet Organs, of which Mr. Matthews, now in this city, is Agent. His performances, last night, on that instrument added much to the interest of the occasion.

INDIAN SUMMER.—This delightful season is now full upon us. A writer in the National Intelligencer, of Nov. 26th, 1857, has the following remarks in relation to it:

"The short season of pleasant weather, usually occurring about the middle of November, is called the Indian Summer, from the custom of the Indians to avail themselves of this delightful time for harvesting their corn; and the tradition is that they were accustomed to say 'they always had a second summer of nine days just before winter set in.' It is a bland and genial time, in which birds, insects, and plants feel a new creation, and sport a short-lived summer ere they shrink finally from the rigor of the winter's blast. The sky in the meantime is generally filled with a haze of orange and gold, yet possessing enough of light and heat to prevent sensations of gloom or chill, while the nights grow sharp and frosty, and the necessary fires give cheerful forecast of the social winter evenings at hand.

This season is synonymous with the Summer of St. Martin, of Europe, which derives its name from the festival of St. Martin, held on the 11th of November. Shakspear alludes to it in the first part of Henry IV:

"Farewell, thou latter Spring!
Farewell, all hallown Summer!"

And more expressively in the first part of Henry VI:

"This night the siege assuredly I'll raise; Expect St. Martin's summer, halcyon days!"

ARRIVALS AT THE EXCHANGE HOTEL, NOV. 9, 1866.—C. H. Lewis, Goldsboro'; H. M. Burnley, Geo. F. Hill, G. H. Hobart, W. A. Bass, N. Freeman, New York; D. J. Banner, Southern Express Co.; Chas. Hilliard, Newbern; Jno. W. Trelvar, Pha.; D. D. Gilt, Baltimore; Thos. M. Keely and lady, Bladen co.; P. J. Brown, Warren; Capt. S. B. Husted, Fort Macon; F. T. King, Baltimore; R. Smith, Macon Ga.; Col. A. S. Anderson and lady, U. S. A.; Miss. Anderson, Dayton Ohio; R. A. Vick and children, Miss.; S. Thompson, N. C.; J. Spencer, A. Thomas, Va.

THE EYE AND EAR.—We refer our readers to the advertisement of Dr. Gardner, Oculist and Aurist, (formerly of London,) now of New York, who will be at the EXCHANGE HOTEL, on Saturday, Nov. 24th., and remain until Thursday, the 29th. After that time, he will visit Raleigh monthly, of which due notice will be given.—The Dr. comes highly recommended by the press of the different cities he has visited. Those who require medical or surgical aid for defective sight or hearing should avail themselves of the opportunity now offered for obtaining relief, by consulting Dr. Gardner.

A RADICAL'S TESTIMONY.—A Northern man, travelling for his health, writes back from Mississippi, as follows: We copy from an exchange:

"When I came here the first time, I came with all my preconceived opinions of Southern arrogance and injustice to Northern men, but a quiet observation of men and things has dissipated entirely the erroneous views I previously entertained, and, thank Heaven, I can now see my Southern countrymen in their true light, which has so long been concealed from my vision.

I came here in favor of impeaching the President. I shall return an advocate of his policy. The people here are quiet, industrious, and firm to a man in their support of the President, and should another shock of civil war disgrace this continent, the men of the South will be driven into it, and when once in, from our knowledge of the past, we can picture the results. From what I have seen, they will not fight unless they are so much oppressed that they would prefer to die rather than submit to continual injustice.

Wendell Phillips says he was wedded to truth and philanthropy when a boy. He must have become a widower when quite young.

STATE NEWS.

——The case of Capt. R. E. Wilson, familiar to most of our readers, and which has attracted much attention in portions of the State, came up before His Honor, Judge Fowle, at Rockingham Superior Court, last week,—the cause having been removed from the county of Forsythe. Capt. Wilson, it will be remembered, was indicted for murder, upon the following facts: He was detailed, during the last year of the war, with his battalion of Sharp-shooters, to go into the Western part of the State, as many other officers were, into other sections of the South, under strict orders to suppress and put down all lawless conduct, to arrest and return to the army all who had deserted their posts. In doing this he had every discretionary power, and a strict charge from the commanding general, in the performance of his duty to use "powder and ball freely." In the discharge of this duty several deserters, who resisted arrest, were shot.

The important witnesses for the prosecution all being in attendance, and after due consultation and investigation, outside of the Bar, the Hon. Thomas Settle, the Attorney of the State, agreed to the rendering of a verdict of "not guilty," in all the charges whereof the defendant stood indicted. Whereupon, Captain Wilson agreed to a compromise in all the civil suits for damages that had hitherto been instituted against him, by paying to the parties claiming such sums of money as were then agreed upon as being satisfactory. And thus, (says the Winston Sentinel,) one of the most unfortunate cases growing out of the late war has been brought to such a termination as can but be gratifying to all good men.

The Sentinel adds:

"In the final disposition of this case the Court and the Solicitor displayed a moral sublimity that raised them above every groveling propensity of malice or political spite, and, with the highest encomiums of the entire bar, acted as men only can who are possessed of high souls, noble minds and patriotic and generous hearts. They viewed all the circumstances in the case, and well comprehended the fact that even by prosecuting to final verdict of guilty and execution, if such a thing were possible, all that could be effected thereby would be the addition of another victim to the long list of those who have fallen in consequence of a ruthless war. It could have no other effect, and would benefit no one. Therefore it was deemed by the Court and the Solicitor best for the country, and best for all parties, to bring the matter to an early close."

—— We are glad to learn that the statement that the Hon. John A. Gilmer was suffering from a stroke of paralysis is exaggerated. Mr. G. has been in bad health for several days, but is improving.

—— W. E. Thompson, Deputy U. S. Collector, while on his way from Asheboro' to Greensboro', on the 8th inst., was seized by three men, near New Salem, Randolph, and robbed of all the money in his possession,—some $2,500.

—— Hon. Jno. Kerr has accepted an invitation to deliver an eulogy upon the life and character of the late Hon. John M. Morehead, in Wentworth, on Tuesday of next May Court for Rockingham.

—— Mrs. Jane P. Daves has been elected President of the Ladies' Memorial Association of Newbern, with Mrs. W. P. Moore, Mrs. C. S. Primrose, and Mrs. J. E. Nash, Vice Presidents, Miss Harriet Lane, Secretary, and Mrs. Junius Lewis, Treasurer.

—— One of the prisoners, who escaped from Goldsboro' jail, on Thursday, has been re-captured.

—— The Wilmington Journal speaks in high terms of a number of freight cars manufactured by the "Brunswick Car Company," under the management of Col. T. C. McIlhenny, of Wilmington.

Constitutional Amendment Postponed.

The elections yesterday settled one point conclusively, at least for some time to come—the constitutional amendment will not be adopted. Neither the Legislature of Maryland nor Delaware will sanction it. These, with Kentucky and the ten excluded States, make thirteen opposed to it. As it requires three-fourths of the States, the adoption or rejection of the amendment is now likely to be the rallying ground of political parties for the next campaign, and as it is hardly possible that the Radicals will be able to create another wave of popular feeling which will blind the judgment of the people by introducing extraneous issues, we are likely to have a thorough discussion and a perfect understanding on all sides of the nature of that amendment and of the principles involved in its adoption. The amendment makes so sweeping a change as to justly entitle it to be called revolutionary. Yet, if the people are really bent on its adoption, after a thorough understanding of its character, we can only acquiesce, while demurring to the wisdom of their course. But what we have always strongly protested against, and shall to the bitter end, is the effort to make its adoption the condition for the exercise of their undoubted rights on the part of any section of the country. That it is to make the rejection of changes of the organic law punitive, is to introduce a style of punishment unknown to the law and the Constitution, and to set a precedent fraught with mischief.

We believed soberly that the result of the late elections is not a verdict in favor of the constitutional amendment. We believe that the thinking men of the country are not prepared to make such an inroad as it proposes on the independence of the States. We believe that the feeling of the people against the leaders of the rebellion has been adroitly played upon to secure a triumph that cannot possibly be maintained. So believing, we shall spare no pains to make clear the consequences of the adoption of such a revolutionary change, and shall calmly await the revision of this award, which is bound, in our judgment, to lead to the reversal of the majorities over which our Radical friends now so loudly exult.—National Intelligencer.

GENERAL SHERMAN'S SYMPATHY WITH THE PRESIDENT.—Lieutenant General Sherman, when in Washington, made no secret of his support of the President's policy. On one occasion he said: "Soldiers have something else to do now besides fighting. We fought the rebels as long as there were any to fight. What we have to do now is to secure the objects for which we fought. We fought to restore the Union; let us now restore it." He frequently expressed his suprise and indignation that the Southern States were deprived of the right of representation so long after the termination of the war.—N. Y. Commercial Advertiser.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.

A delegation of prominent Western men called upon the President yesterday, to urge the removal of Mr. Rollins, and the appointment of Mr. Spooner, as Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

FORTIFIED as the Radicals in Baltimore were by every species of chicanery, stratagem and iniquitous legislation to enable them to retain the power which they acquired during the war, they were defeated on Tuesday, and Maryland has been rescued from their clutches.

One by one the Border States that were temporarily crushed beneath the iron wheel of the military despotism which prevailed during the war, are taking their proper positions in the ranks of the Conservative party. Kentucky was the first to break loose from the trammels of Radicalism, and in due season Tennessee and Missouri will do likewise.

But while all of the old slave States are gravitating steadily towards "conservatism," the old Free States are becoming more and more Radical each day. New Jersey, for instance, so long the most conservative of the Free States, gives melancholy evidence of this tendency upon the part of all the States north of MASON and DIXON's line.—Richmond Times.

Connecticut.

NEW HAVEN, Nov. 7.—The town election today resulted in the election of the Democratic ticket, with the exception of the Town Clerk, who was supported by the Republican and working-men's organizations. The Democratic plurality is 570.

Ex-Governor Wise, who has for several days been ill with cholera, is now considered out of danger. Dr. Haxall, the attending physician, thinks his distinguished patient safe.

It is but little more than three months since the greater portion of the city of Portland was burned, and it appears that up to this time nearly seven hundred new buildings have been erected upon the ruins of the disastrous conflagration.

Buffalo has a poor-house that is worth living in. The Express says that among the items of expense last year, were $3,000 for tea, $500 for oysters, and $900 for whiskey and cigars.

A New and Grand Epoch in Medicine!

DR. MAGGIEL is the founder of a new Medical System! The quantitarians, whose vast internal doses enfeeble the stomach and paralyze the bowels, must give precedence to the man who restores health and appetite, with from one to two of his extraordinary Pills, and cures the most virulent sores with a box or so of his wonderful and all healing Salve. These two great specifics of the Doctor are fast superseding all the stereotyped nostrums of the day. Extraordinary cures by Maggiel's Pills and Salve have opened the eyes of the public to the inefficiency of the (so-called) remedies of others, and upon which people have so long blindly depended. Maggil's Pills are not of the class that are swallowed by the dozen, and of which every box full taken creates an absolute necessity for another. One or two of Maggiel's Pills suffices to place the bowels in perfect order, tone the stomach, create an appetite, and render the spirits light and buoyant! There is no griping, and no reaction in the form of constipation. If the liver is affected, its functions are restored; and if the nervous system is feeble, it is invigorated. This last quality makes the medicines very desirable for the wants of delicate females. Ulcerous and eruptive diseases are literally extinguished by the disinfectant power of Maggiel's Salve. In fact, it is announced that Maggiel's Billious, Dyspeptic and Diarrhoea Pills cure where all others fail. While for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts and all abrasions of the skin, Maggiel's Salve is infallible. Sold by J. MAGGIEL, 11 Pine St., New York, and all Druggists, at 25 cts. per box.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

The Louisville Journal says: "The testimonials which Dr. Gardner presents to the public could never have been obtained, except by the display of great skill and learning in his profession. One thing especially commendable in the Doctor's practice is, that he will not attempt an incurable disease for the sake of a fee, but frankly tells the patient whether he can be cured or not. We cheerfully recommend Dr. Gardner to the attention of all our friends who may be suffering from diseases of the eye or ear.

The Richmond Times says: We have no hesitation in saying that Dr. Gardner is the most scientific and successful eye and ear Surgeon in this country.

"We feel justified in recommending Doctor Gardner to those suffering from diseases of the eye and ear."—Richmond Whig.

"We can safely and cordially recommend Dr. Gardner, who will fulfill all he undertakes to perform."—Baltimore Clipper.

The New Orleans True Delta says: "We can safely recommend Dr. Gardner as a successful operator on the eye and ear. He will not undertake to treat a case unless a cure can be effected.

The Wheeling Register says: "Dr. Gardner is one of the most successful Oculists and Aurists in the country. We advise those suffering from the diseases of the eye and ear to consult him."

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL,

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease.

So wide is the field of its usefulness and so numerous are the cases of its cures, that almost every section of country abounds in persons publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other expectorant is too patent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs that are incident to our climate. While many inferior remedies thrust upon the community have failed and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted they can never forget, and produced cures too numerous and too remarkable to be forgotten.

We can only assure the public, that its quality is carefully kept up to the best it ever has been, and that it may be relied on to do for their relief all that it has ever done.

Great numbers of Clergymen, Physicians, Statesmen, and eminent personages, have lent their names to certify the unparalleled usefulness of our remedies, but space here will not permit the insertion of them. The Agents below named furnish gratis our American Almanac in which they are given; with also full descriptions of the complaints they cure.

Those who require an alterative medicine to purify the blood will find AYER'S COMP. EXT. SARSAPARILLA the remedy to use. Try it once, and you will know its value.

TEACHER WANTED.

THE TRUSTEES OF VINE HILL ACADEMY wish to employ a Teacher for the ensuing year, qualified to prepare boys for any College in the United States.

This Academy is situated in one of the healthiest sections of Eastern North Carolina, amidst people of refinement and wealth, convenient to Episcopal, Baptist and Methodist Churches, twenty miles from Halifax town, and thirty from Weldon.

The building has rooms sufficient for a large number of pupils, and convenient to it is a two-story Dwelling with all necessary out-houses, for the use of the Teacher.

A competent one may safely rely on forty to fifty pupils from this and the adjoining counties.

Letters, with proper testimonials, directed to the undersigned, at Scotland Neck, Halifax County, North Carolina, will be laid before the Board of Trustees, and a selection made on the 20th of November.

W. B. SMITH, President.

SOMETHING NEW

UNDER THE SUN.

A New Era In Medicine!

☞ Let the Suffering and Diseased read the following.

☞ Let all who have been given up by Doctors, and spoken of as incurable, read the following.

☞ Let all who can believe facts and can have faith in evidence, read the following:

Know all men by these presents, That on this, the Twentieth day of June, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Sixty-Six, personally came Joseph Haydock to me, known as such, and being duly sworn, deposed as follows: That he is the sole general agent for the United States, and dependencies thereof, for preparations or medicines known as MAGGIEL'S PILLS and SALVE, and that the following certificates are verbatim copies to the best of his knowledge and belief.

JAMES SMEITER,
L. S. Notary Public,
Wall Street, New York.

June 1, 1866.

DR. MAGGIEL:—I take my pen to write you of my great relief and that the awful pain in my side has left me at last—thanks to your medicine. Oh, doctor, how thankful I am that I can get some sleep. I can never write it enough. I thank you again and again, and am sure that you are really the friend of all sufferers. I could not help writing to you, and hope you will not take it amiss.

JAMES MYERS,
116 Avenue D.

This is to certify that I was discharged from the army with Chronic Diarrhœa, and have been cured by Dr. Maggiel's Pills.

WILSON HARVEY,
New York, April 7, 1868. 27 Pitt Street.

The following is an interesting case of a man employed in an Iron Foundry, who, in pouring melted iron into a flask that was damp and wet, caused an explosion. The melted iron was thrown around and on him in a perfect shower, and he was burnt dreadfully. The following certificate was given to me by him about eight weeks after the accident.

New York, Jan. 11, 1866.

My name is Jacob Hardy; I am an Iron Founder; I was badly burnt by hot iron in November last; it burns healed, but I had a running sore on my leg that would not heal; I tried Maggiel's Salve, and it cured me in a few weeks. This is all true, and any body can now see me at Jackson's Iron Works, 2nd Avenue.

J. HARDY,
119 Georick Street.

Extract from Various Letters:

"I had no appetite; Maggiel's Pills gave me a hearty one."

"Your Pills are marvelous."

"I send for another box, and keep them in the house."

"Dr. Maggiel has cured my headache that was chronic."

"I gave half of one of your pills to my babe for cholera morbus. The dear little thing got well in a day."

"My nausea of a morning is now cured."

"Your box of Maggiel's Salve cured me of noises in the head. I rubbed some of your Salve behind my ears and the noise left."

"Send me two boxes; I want one for a poor family."

"I enclose a dollar; your price is twenty-five cents, but the medicine to me is worth a dollar."

"Send me five boxes of your pills."

"Let me have three boxes of your Salve by return mail."

I have over 200 such Testimonials

As this, but want of space compels me to conclude.

J. MAGGIEL, M. D.

P. F. PESCUD AGENT FOR RALEIGH, FOR

Maggiel's Pills and Salve.

NOTICE.—None genuine without the engraved trademark around each pot or box, signed by Dr. J. MAGGIEL, 11 Pine Street, New York, to counterfeit which is felony.

Raleigh, Nov 7-tds.

VALUABLE PLANTATION FOR SALE!

ON THE SECOND THURSDAY IN DECEMBER, that being the 13th day of the month, I will sell to the highest bidder, upon the premises, that desirable lately owned, and resided upon, by Miss Elizabeth Hinton, dec'd.

The tract is situated on Neuse River, six miles East of Raleigh, on the Tarboro' Road, adjoining the lands of David Hinton. It contains from of land,—from THREE TO FOUR HUNDRED of which are cleared. About 100 acres are fine low grounds, not liable to over-flow. This is considered one of the best Cotton Plantations in the County, and the bottom land will always produce enough Corn to sustain it.

THE IMPROVEMENTS

consist of a handsome Dwelling House, containing seven rooms, located on a commanding site. There are three frame houses also on the premises, with two rooms each, and all necessary out-houses, cabins, barns, gin house, carriage house, &c.

As this land will be sold on the liberal credit of only one-third cash, the balance payable in one, two and three years, a rare opportunity is afforded to parties wishing to purchase a first-class farm.

Personal security will be required, and title will be with-held until the last payment is made.

Nov. 2—4d W. R. MILLER, Agent of Legatees.

LAST CALL.

To Freedmen and Others.

I WILL attend at the Court House in Raleigh, daily, until Monday, the 12th. inst., for the purpose of collecting the balance of the unpaid State and County taxes due for the year 1865.

J. D. PULLEN, Coll'r.

Parties must pay their taxes to the Collector, as above stated, or I will proceed to collect the same by distress, without further delay, as I am required to settle my Tax account with the County at its next November Term.

E. H. RAY, Sheriff.

IN addition to the loss and prompt payment of Justus Kimseys policy for $5,000, is now added another loss, by the death of J. E. Weeks, of Elizabeth City, N. C. for $5,000, and again promptly settled by the Ætna.

By this practical illustration of the advantages of Life Insurance, it is commended to the confidence and support of every one desirous of providing for surviving loved ones.

As an investment merely, a Life Insurance Policy is as safe an investment of funds as can be made.—The principal, generally, is not only many times in excess of the amount paid, but in a sound company it has no rival for security, and no species of Government bonds are a more desirable investment.

DESIRABLE CITY PROPERTY FOR SALE!

I offer my house and lot in Raleigh, near the Deaf and Dumb Asylum and the residence of the Rev. Dr. Lacy, for sale. It is a half acre lot.

The House is two stories with an L., consisting of six comfortable rooms with fire places, a porch and piazza. Necessary outbuildings and a good pump are on the premises. The garden spot is excellent. An opportunity and bargain are offered those wishing to purchase a comfortable and healthy residence.

1866. FALL TRADE 1866.

M'ILWAINE & CO.,

WHOLESALE DEALERS IN STAPLE & FANCY DRY GOODS.

No. 79 Sycamore Street,

Petersburg, Virginia,

TAKE PLEASURE IN INFORMING THEIR friends and the trade generally that the steady increase of their business has rendered it necessary for them to add two rooms to their Dry Goods Department, together with a large and convenient entrance from Tabb street, which arrangement gives them a most spacious Sales-room, well lighted, and enables them by this increased accommodation to add largely to their Fall Supply.

They beg leave to invite particular attention to their extensive assortment of

made to order under the supervision of Mr. A. S. SHAFER, whose long experience in this department of business, in this city, has made him familiar with the wants of Merchants in Virginia and North Carolina. Anticipating a heavy Trade this Fall, their stock will be found unusually large, embracing a general assortment of

American and Foreign

STAPLE AND FANCY DRY GOODS,

together with a full line of

which having been purchased for cash, they have no hesitation in saying to the Trade, that they are prepared to offer such inducements as will insure satisfaction.

Capt. EDWARD GRAHAM and Mr. JOHN McNEECE have charge of this Department, and will be pleased to exhibit our stock to buyers visiting this market. McILWAINE & CO.
